TROLLEY LINE ASKS FRANCHISE

Smoot and Loose Request Rights in the City.

PART OF A BIG SCHEME

COUNCIL GIVES SALT LAKE & SUBURBAN AN EXTENSION.

Application was sent to the city council last evening for a franchise for a street railway to run from one end of the city to the other. The application was presented by Fernstrom, read by title and then held back on the an-nouncement that it was not accompa-nied by a certified check for $200. The names attached to the application wers Francis M. Lyman, jr., T. O. Steffey and Milando Pratt. The real backers are United States Senator Reed Smoot. State Senator C. E. Loose, the Telluride Power company and others.

It is part of the scheme to build an electric road from Springville and electric road from Springville and Provo through Salt Lake, Ogden and Brigham City to Logan. The applica-tion asks for a fifty-year franchise to build and operate a street railway on the following streets: Commencing at the intersection of Commencing at the intersection of Tenth South and Second West streets and running thence east to the intersection of Tenth South and First West streets, thence north along the west side of First West street to a point where the Oregon Short Line railroad turns northwesterly off of said First West street, thence northeasterly across said Oregon Short Line railroad to the east side of the center of said First West street, thence north along the east side of the center of said First West street to its intersection with West street to its intersection with First North street, thence north along the east side of the Consolidated Railwhy & Power company's track to Second North street, thence north along said First West street to its intersection with Wall street, thence northwesterly along the east side of the Consolidated along the east side of the Consolidated Railway & Power company's track, thence northwesterly along the east side of the Warm Springs grounds through block 157, plat A, Salt Lake City survey, to an intersection with the county road, thence northerly along the said county road to the city limits. In the application the following explanation is made:

LOCAL BRIEFS.

WILL GO TO SALT PALACE.—The Young Men's Republican club expects to ave a day at the Salt Palace Aug. 27. The arrangements call for much speaking busic, races for young and old and kinded diversions.

HEARING POSTPONED.—The prelim-nary hearing of Aurora Hodge which was to have been had before Judge Diehl yes-terday morning has gone over until Wed-nesday at 10 o'clock. Judge Diehl has been engaged with a civil suit which will becupy his time until Wednesday morn-ng.

f this city received a message from eadville yesterday stating that his ephew. Charles Berryman, who accidently shot himself while handling a hameriess revolver, was dead. The young an was trying to "break" the gun when twent off, and the bullet entered his hest chest.

CAMBRIANS' OUTING.—The Utah Cambrian association will have an excursion to Spanish Fork today. Trains will leave at 9 a. m. and 5 p. m., returning to Salt Lake at 12:30. The late train will be met by street cars. A large number have signified their intention of taking the trip and a big time is expected.

ENTERTAIN 9+PHANS.—The little people of the Orphans' Home and Day Nursery were shown a royal time last week by the management of Saltair. They were given the courtesy of the place with all its attractions, and the Salt Lake Street Rallroad company carried them through the city free. This week they will be the guests of the Lagoon management and will doubtless spend a merry day Friday.

MORE TYPHOLD FEVER.—The follows.

MORE TYPHOID FEVER.—The following new cases of typhoid fever were reported to the board of health yesterday:
A. F. Eleggren, 442 East Seventh South:
John Nelson, aged 35, 27 South Fifth
West; Bertha Martins, aged 7. Fourth
East between Third and Fourth South:
Lucy Smith, aged 13, 127 North Second
West; Mrs. George Sperry, aged 30, 270
West Sixth South. This makes thirty cases of typhoid fever that have been reported to the board this month.

For DEPOT YARDS.—A tract of property on the corner of First North and Fourth West streets was purchased from the city by the Short Line yesterday for $12,000. On the property stands the building used for many years as the Skteenth ward meeting house. The railroad company is buying the property for the purpose of extending its depot yards, and it is understood that new buildings, including a foundry, will be erected there. The company is seen and if the property posall the property pos sible in this vicinity.

BOARD OF ENAMINERS.—The war department has appointed a board of examiners to meet at Fort Douglas in the near future for the purpose of examining such officers as desire to be tested for their fitness for promotion. The board is composed of Major Allen M. Smith, Captain Charles H. Barth, Captain Frank L. Whn, Captain James P. Harbeson, Contract Surgeon James H. Hepburn and Lieutenant Dana T. Merrill. The time of meeting has not been set yet, as it is left to the call of the president, Major Smith.

BOY IS HURT.—Arthur Miller, the 9-year-old son of J. B. Miller of the Salt Lake Telegram met with a painful accident shortly after 6 o'clock last evening on Second South and Main streets. The lad was sitting on the railing by Walker Bros.' bank and suddenly lost his balance and fell over backwards into the basement below, alighting on his head. Several bystanders who witnessed the accident carried the little fellow to Smith's drug store, where his injuries were attended to. He was suffering from a severe bruise over his left eye and had injured his right ankle. As soon as his wounds were dressed he was removed to his home by Officer Andrew Smith.

WAS HOTTEST DAY.—Yesterday holds

mence operations at once and complete at least seventy-five miles of track within two years from date hereof."

Over the protest of A. J. Davis, the Salt Lake & Suburban Railway company was given an extension of the time in which it was required to begin work and complete the road. Davis tried to get a postponement, but failed, and the ordinance was amended giving the company sixty days from the passage of the measure to begin work, and until Oct. 1, 1904, to have the road in operation. A. J. Davis, E. H. Davis and Arnold voted in the negative.

Breaking the Sabbath.

Eardley was much annoyed over the alleged fact that the Oregon Short Line does switching on the Sabbath day on the sabbath its Third West street tracks between Third and Sixth South streets. He introduced a resolution requesting the superintendent of streets to have the noise stopped on Sundays. This was amended to make it that the superintendent of streets request the railroad company to stop its switching on Sunday. In this form it was passed.
